Scenes representative of Mississippi at work and play, together with scenes of the many attractions we have to offer. You are invited to tour our state, over roads pledged among the best in the nation.

Whether you plan to visit our state or make it your home,

You're Always Welcome

Mississippi has thousands of lakes that abound in bass, crappie, and bluegill.

Along the Mississippi Gulf Coast you will find beautiful beaches, watertight boat trips, fishing and airboat dancers to fill the pace of all.

Every kind of relaxation can be had in the many state parks of Mississippi.

Highway forming winding concretes streets of town and country.

Industry has flourished in Mississippi in recent years because of ideal climate, convenient labor, cheap power, and all around welcome.

Deer's field of the Cloth of Gold.

Year-round grazing makes Mississippi ideal for cattle raising and dairying. Both are, and have long been "big business."

One of the beautiful and lasting bridges spanning rivers and streams of Mississippi.

Vicksburg National Military Park—every state who had men in the Civil War, has a monument similar to this one of Mississippi.

For many years Mississippi has had a reforestation program that is already paying off in pine forestals for paper mills, and more later.

Clouds cast a canopy over modern highways path to outside world.